

Leaning toward a
European vacation?

So are we.

Disney CRUISE LINE®

Announcing New Mediterranean Cruises in Europe

{ Sailing Summer 2007 }

Next year, set sail on a voyage like no other. For the very first time, the wonders of a Disney cruise have been combined with some of Italy, France and Spain's most picturesque ports. Come explore breathtaking European destinations on an incredible family vacation filled with the magic, charm and world-famous service of a Disney cruise.

Michelangelo's David in Florence, Italy. A masterpiece in Marble.

Just the thought of a "Mediterranean Cruise" brings to mind an amazing adventure to dream destinations along Europe's storied coastline. If you've ever dreamed of visiting Europe, this is the cruise for you. All on board will savor impeccable Disney service and enjoy their own favorite kind of magic with entertainment and unique spaces created especially for kids, teens, adults and families.

Disney Cruise Line® makes it simple to put together your voyage of ultimate enchantment. Together, we'll explore some of the most celebrated sights and cities along the Mediterranean coast. To voyage throughout Europe with Disney will be like traveling with a friend who knows where to find the most jaw-dropping vistas and all the must-see marvels. Summer 2007, come with us on the most incredible Disney cruise yet. The Mediterranean will never get more magical than this.

The Roman Coliseum – arguably the world's most recognizable ruin.

Disney Cruise Line® Mediterranean Cruises in Europe

11-Night Cruise (subject to change)

- Day 1 Barcelona, Spain
- Day 2 At sea
- Day 3 Palermo, (Sicily), Italy
- Day 4 Naples, (Pompeii), Italy
- Day 5 Olbia, (Sardinia), Italy
- Day 6 Civitavecchia, (Rome), Italy
- Day 7* At sea
- Day 8 La Spezia, (Florence, Pisa), Italy
- Day 9 Marseilles, France
- Day 10 Villefranche, (Monte Carlo, Cannes, Nice), France
- Day 11 At sea
- Day 12 Return to Barcelona, Spain

*10-Night cruise includes the same ports, with one less day at sea.

Ask about two unique 14-Night Trans-Atlantic Cruises, with their own exotic ports of call, including Disney's Castaway Cay.

Join Captain Mickey on an enchanting European voyage on the Disney Magic.

Palermo, capital of Sicily, offers a visual feast of art and architecture.

Barcelona's Sagrada Familia basilica – begun in 1882 and still under construction.

Monte Carlo, in the Principality of Monaco, is one of Europe's gems by the sea.

To book or learn more, contact: